April 2017

Editor's Bit

Hello everyone!

Once again, I hope you are all well and enjoying the 2017 season. This edition of the newsletter has all the successes of our group from last year that were celebrated at the awards evening and we have received a touching obituary from Jackie Lloyd and Sam Parkinson following the sad loss of their steeds last year. Members of all ages should check out the Young Riders' section this edition as Kate Atkinson has written an interesting piece on her 2017 FEI season so far. I hope you enjoy the newsletter and if you would like to submit something for the June edition, please do not hesitate to email it over. I can edit upon request; s.g.crabtree@icloud.com

We also have a few notices through this newsletter, read carefully and if you have any further questions contact one of us on the Committee (contacts on back page).

Please remember to print off and complete the horse registration form from the Lancs website, send to Sarah Bamber, Flowerhill Farm, Wardle, Rochdale, OL12 9PL with an A5 SAE.

Sarah Bamber our Members' Secretary has a few words to say about the season so far as a Lancashire member and some important reminders for all our members.

Susy x

Membership in the group is looking healthy with the new season off to a good start.

The 1st event in January was the training day arranged by Linda, Sue and I. Gemma Pearson a well-respected vet, horse behaviourist and endurance rider, Lisa Emerson from EquiFit Physio and Anna Welch from TopSpec feeds and endurance rider were the speakers for the day. They are all very knowledgeable in their chosen fields of expertise; we all came away having learned lots. The day was very well attended with 37 people booked on; fellow riders from Cheshire and West Riding groups joined us at Chorley Equestrian Centre.

The next event was Knowing your Rights and Responsibilities on the Roads. Ellen Shaw, a local Barrister and keen horse rider, along with Adam and Dave from Lancashire mounted police gave an interesting talk. Staying safe when riding on the roads was the main topic of the evening, they even brought their Police horses, although they had to stay at the truck in the car park. 20 people came along including members and friends.

Feedback from both events was very positive from everyone who attended, which is encouraging. If you have any ideas for future events please let me know.

As members' secretary I have endeavoured to keep up with the demand for ride cards, so far so good. Although, I haven't received many horse registration forms from you all. This is an important part of your membership records which helps with the end of season awards at the presentation evening. Please try to get the forms to me as soon as you can.

All riders now need to be registered with National EGB to enter in national events. Registering is FREE for non-members and their horses; you must register before trying to enter any national pleasure rides. Simply log onto the main Endurance GB website and register in the member's area as a 'supporter'. Riding Club and pony club members can join as a 'club' member.

Once registered your details will be easy to find each time you want to enter a new ride.

Finally, as ride secretary for Piethorne pleasure ride next month I am pleased to report that it is filling up quickly. Only 15 places are left so send your entry forms to me ASAP to guarantee a place.

Sarah.

From the Chair

Hi again everyone,

Well the season is well underway now and everyone seems happy so far. We have had quite a few successful national competitive results from group members, which is always encouraging, some of which can be read about later in this newsletter. We also have seen several of our own group Pleasure Rides take place very successfully with smiling faces all round, so keep at it Lancashire we are doing a good job.

We set the year off to a good start with the Annual Presentation Night, once again held at Ribby Hall. The results for this are printed at the end of the newsletter for those who either weren't there on the night, or have not managed to read them on the group website. I think it went really well; we had a good spread of awards and a good mix of members collecting them. I was pleased to see a few new members coming along to join in the fun - they will obviously now be 'hooked' by the event and should be regular attendees.

The group-training day in January was very pleasing with plenty turning up for the occasion, even from surrounding groups. You can read about that in Sarah's report but it was very informative - although a freezing day ha! Sarah's Road Safety Event, another very successful addition to our training and education calendar, followed this training.

I also cannot go without mentioning our AGM in March, where the Annual Ride Organiser Meeting followed the formal proceedings. The AGM went well with just a few questions and queries raised by the membership, and as most of the ride dates had already been sorted, the RO meeting went extremely smoothly. As usual, I would like to say thank you to all the Ride Organisers who are happy to put in the time and effort to produce these rides for everyone. I think it is worth mentioning that the AGM was three months later than usual this year in order to get in line with National and the accounting year reports etc. In addition, we usually hold the Ride Organiser meeting in January to get the ride schedule on line as quickly as possible. However, due to clashes of dates etc. we needed to hold the RO and AGM meetings together. This unfortunately meant that ride information went online a bit later than usual - our apologies for this but everyone has the info now, and this timing of RO meetings shouldn't take place this late again.

One of the main events of the AGM is the re-election of committee members followed by a committee meeting at which the committee decide on the roles they will perform for the following year. After some 13 or more years of being Lancs Group Chairperson, I have decided it is time for someone else to take up the reins (sorry for the pun!) . I have really enjoyed these years and the variety of events, occasions and processes I have been involved in but feel it is time to take a back seat, so this will probably be the last Chairman's Bit that I will write for the newsletter. I would like to take this opportunity to thank all our membership, past and present, for all the support given and fun we have had during this time.

Unfortunately, at the time of writing we are not sure who will be taking over as Chairman. This will be decided at our next committee meeting, but do not worry folks - we will keep you informed.

On another note that is again a bit disappointing, we have decided to cancel the Ulnes Walton Wander Ride for this year. Unfortunately, the ride date was changed from the usual end of April date, to the Bank Holiday Weekend on Sunday 28th May. This was due to ride schedule clashes and venue availability dates but was not the best of choices. To date we have very few offers of assistance, for the day and also for marking and secretarial duties etc. beforehand. We also have few entries this year in comparison to previous patterns. I know this is because of the Bank Holiday as so many people are going away on holiday, are at weddings or are going to the Cranwell Ride over the weekend. You cannot blame anyone for this as it is a holiday weekend. Additionally because of my health issues, I know I am not up to doing as much of the tasks as usual and need to avoid the additional stress, so we have decided to cancel for this year - my apologies to everyone who was planning to do the ride.

Well I have finally come to the end of my bit. Sorry again for the slightly disappointing news at the end, but don't worry we will be riding it again before long.

Once again, I would like to wish everyone the best of luck for the rest of the season - I may see you out there at a forthcoming ride. In the meantime, have fun and the best of wishes to everyone with your new Chairperson.

Take care out there
Sue x.

Young Rider Information

Thanks to the organisers and helpers of two well run FEI events I have been able to qualify two of my horses for the young rider world championships later this year. There is no greater feeling than having success after such hard work.

We took DNS Ronaldo (Nessie) to Kings Forest, a relatively fast and flat event, with the hope to complete the 120km CEI2*. The course was riding really well and Nessie was vetting quickly, this led to us riding at a reasonable pace. We finished in 2nd place at 18.44kph, this gave me a real sense of achievement knowing he performed successfully like that due to all the hard work and training I had done with him.

Two weeks later we took HS Prosper to Haywood Oaks, again with the same goal, but the course was different, the horse was different, and the conditions were different. So, although I had trained both horses at home at similar speeds, on the day Prosper and I rode slower. We ended up finishing the ride in first place, but due to the terrain being more unpredictable and us doing half the ride by ourselves, we only rode at just over 14kph, still a great success. Two weeks, two horses, two 120km CEI2* events, and two fantastic achievements. When hard training, a good team, wonderful organisation and a little bit of luck come together, it really shows how great our sport is.

Kate.

Please Remember!

All Young Persons (under 18 years old) will need to take a completed Parental Consent Form to every ride they take part in. This includes Group Pleasure Rides as well as National Rides.

If this applies to you, you will need to download a copy of the form, get your parent/guardian to complete it, and place it in an envelope with your name and 'Parental Consent Form' written clearly on the front. You should hand this in to the Ride Secretary when you collect your number bib at every ride you go to. They should return the envelope to you at the end of the ride so you can re-use it if you wish.

Recollections of Horsing Around:

An Obituary to Minstrel Max and Miss April.

Minstral Max , owned by Sam Parkinson and Miss April, owned by Jackie Lloyd covered thousands of miles together on Endurance rides, pleasure rides and horseback holidays over a period of almost twenty years. They were great pals and there was never a cross word between them. Sam and I met through our horses in the early 90's and have remained friends ever since. We have Max and April to thank for that! How fitting then that Sam and I should lose our wonderful companions on the same day - and so it seemed appropriate as well as a fitting tribute to two fantastic steeds, to write about them together today!

Here are a few words from each of us of our memories:

April found me, not the other way around as is usually the case. I certainly wasn't shopping for a horse! In fact, I had only just learnt to ride back then, in the early 90's - I was a late starter; when one day along came April's owner to ask if I would like to exercise her! At this point I had only hacked out on riding school ponies, so the very prospect scared me to death.

But, after just two or three rides out, alongside April's mother, Amber, I was given total freedom to ride Miss April whenever and wherever I wanted. Here began my love affair with that very special horse in particular, and with the Arabian horse in general. I was immediately afflicted with the severe condition commonly known as "Arabitis" and I became determined to make the lovely Miss April my very own. A few months later I fulfilled my ambition of owning her and from there on we were inseparable. We hacked out endlessly together and were always reluctant to turn for home. It was on one of our very long rides out locally in Rivington that we came across a posse of riders who trotted past us at a stonking pace, all wearing bibs, and many riding Arabian horses. Unable to resist the temptation to engage in a lively trot, I pushed April on and spent a happy hour riding alongside them, chatting merrily about the ups and downs of horse ownership. I discovered they were riding with "The Endurance Horse and Pony Society" and so when I eventually peeled away from them to head for home, I took a detour into the "venue" where they had started from to obtain more details! Soon after, I met Sam and loaned a horse and we rode out together a lot. Then Sam bought Max and from then on our two horses became "partners in crime". We have all been involved in Endurance ever since.

I have so much to thank Miss April for. She loved what she did and we loved doing it together. We were a partnership and we had a ball. I'll never forget her; you never do forget your first horse! But she also gave me so many "firsts" for which I shall be eternally grateful : first solo ride out, first trot, first canter, first rosette, first award, first fall, first accident, first horse riding holiday, to name but a few. She made me believe in myself - I always believed in her.

I miss her every day that she is gone but I will remember her kind eye, her soft whinny and the wind in our hair! I'm am proud to say that on her very last morning she ate a hearty meal and trotted up the field with a spring in her step and a light in her eye. It was a last act of kindness, the hardest thing I have ever had to do, but I did it for her; my friend and companion for more than twenty years... Goodnight Miss April, you will always be in my heart.

I felt my dreams had come true when I progressed from lessons at Chorley Equestrian Centre, to loaning a pretty chestnut Welsh Arab called Vincent, but that was only the start. I'd ridden regularly as a child, but buying me a much longed for pony was beyond the family budget. Everything moved on to another level of horsey fun when a space was announced in our yard's rentable horsebox, to an event called an 'endurance ride'. I gamely volunteered with Vincent's owner's advice ringing in my ears, to "Be brave and have fun."

The first collection en route to the Yorkshire Dales was an elegant grey Arab and her owner, a rather smart and gregarious lady called....yes, you've guessed it....Jackie Lloyd. We chattered all the way there, all round the 25 mile route (an average pleasure ride in those EHPS days) all the way back and on many happy horsey occasions in the 22 years since.

When my son Will turned one, my husband became suspiciously keen for me to buy my own horse and I was only too pleased to cooperate. Seven year old, Irish Cob (Minstrel) Max was bought in 2000, the old fashioned way, from a Farmers' Guardian advert. I fell in love with his bonny head, two-tone piebald tail and eager engine. Somehow, Jackie and the gang decided that I had the best brakes and consequently encouraged me to head up every canter. This didn't account for April's Arab turbo boost kicking in, at which point Jackie would sweetly apologise and zoom by with a joyful grin.

Our annual trip to Lindum, since 2002 has always been a particular highlight, becoming a ladies' jolly, involving wine, gossip, shopping and fabulously long canters through Lincolnshire fields. My most treasured memories with Max though, are of the Pony Club endurance rides completed with Will, even when I had to half-halt all way round, to restrict Max's keen stride to pony pace.

His increasing arthritis led me to retire Max earlier than planned at an otherwise fit 23 years and he became a sensible baby sitter to our foal. I chose to keep and breed from Will's lovely little bay, Cuillin, who then impressed us all by completing Grade 1s in her novice year last season, just months after weaning her baby. I've been blessed to have such a great little horse to lessen Max's loss. April's final day had been carefully planned and emotionally anticipated. How uncanny it was that Max also went to sleep on that sunny October day, to avoid unpleasant surgery and another painfully arthritic winter. I like to think of them racing between the clouds together in horse heaven.

What do I miss most about Max? Having a cuddle around that thick cob neck and burying my hand in his ridiculously hairy winter coat, or having to only think 'canter' for him to bound forward enthusiastically on any terrain? Max was the most willing, kindly, reliable gentleman I could have hoped for as my first horse and better still as my best friend.

Farewell Minstrel Max

Farewell Miss April

Sam and I loved you both

You gave us so much

We were proud to partner you

Proud to ride you

Proud to care for you

And we will be forever proud to remember you.

EGB Lancashire Group Awards Presentation Evening
Saturday 28th January 2017

This year we welcomed and were assisted in the presentation of awards by well-known Lancs Group rider Annette Schumer. Sadly Annette physically left our group this summer to return to her native Holland after spending a happy 5 years here, living with her family in Croston.

Annette has been a valued member of both EGB and Ulnes Walton Bridleways Association committee, and for that reason, we asked her if she would kindly present our awards for 2016. We were so pleased she was able to accept the invitation and she made the flight over from Holland especially to be with us. A big thank you from all of Lancashire EGB and well done everyone!

Ride Reports

Sunday 9th April 2017 Croal Irwell Valley Pleasure Ride

Please order your pictures at <http://www.whatapicture.biz>

Another successful Spring Croal ride took place on the 9th April. The weather had been really dry on the days before, making all the Bridleways and off road paths really good going, best we had seen in years. 50 riders and horses attended the event including 3 young riders who really enjoyed the day so much that one signed up to be a member of EGB on the day. One young rider was accompanied by her mum, who ran the 23k as a training run for her 1/2 marathon, and a young lad who cycled the whole course whilst his mum rode.

Thanks to all the helpers, Jamie Houghton, Sarah Bamber, Nicky Clark and Diane Hudson for the excellent marking. Chris and Tania Fitton - CP2, Liz Nabb - First Aid, Bec Paul and Maxine Braithwaite - car parking duties, and Sarah Bamber for ride day office all received their helper points towards the volunteers' trophy at the end of the year

We had a good mix of members and non-members, and everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves and we hope to see many of them Back in October for the Autumn Croal Ride which will be a new route avoiding any roadwork.
